

COMPOUND & COMPLEX

WINTER SENTENCE BUILDING

compound	compound	compound	compound	compound
 to	 create	 a	 snow	 fort.
compound	compound	compound	compound	compound

Name Brent

Build it, Read it, Write it!

(A)

Snowflakes fall from the sky, and they cover the ground with a blanket of snow.

A warm cup of tea is the perfect drink on a cold day, or you may prefer hot cocoa.

I want to build a snowman, but my friend wants to create a snow fort.

I checked my writing for:

- capital letters → Ihe
- good spelling
- punctuation marks → (, , ! ?)

© Created By: Christina Winter

Included are 2 types of sentences COMPOUND & COMPLEX

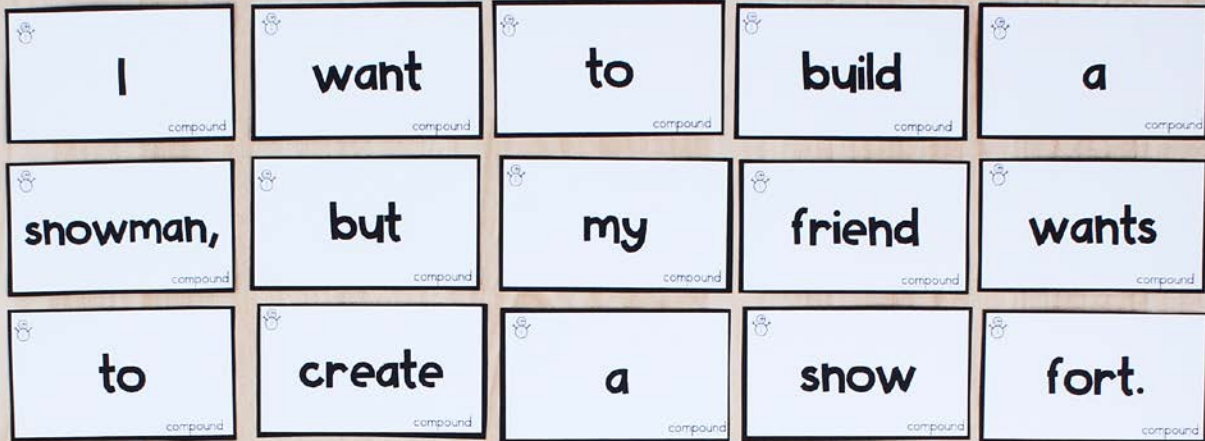

WINTER Build and Write SENTENCES

image	page	compound sentences	image	page	compound sentences
	1 or A	Snowflakes fall from the sky, and they cover the ground with a blanket of snow.		7 or C	Penguins are the most well-dressed of animals, for they always wear black and white.

WINTER Build and Write SENTENCES

image	page	complex sentences	image	page	complex sentences
	1 or A	Even though snowflakes look the same, each one is unique.		7 or C	You've probably never seen a penguin in real life unless you've been to a zoo.
	2 or A	Hot chocolate is my favorite drink if it has multiple marshmallows!		8 or C	Although a polar bear's fur looks white, it's actually transparent.
	3 or A	"Whenever I build a snowman, I use my favorite fuzzy scarf," Mason exclaimed.		9 or C	I always include a book to read when I make my holiday gift list.
	4 or B	Since we all had a day off of school, my siblings and I went ice skating.		10 or D	My whole family counted down to the New Year before the clock struck midnight.
	5 or B	"I would avoid snowboarding unless you have good balance," explained Matt.		11 or D	During the Valentine's Day party, all the students handed out cards to their classmates.
	6 or B	As soon as a snow day is announced, I'll go sledding on the big hill.		12 or D	Mom pronounced, "I love to celebrate Valentine's Day because candy hearts are my favorite treat!"

OPTION 1: Students build, read, and record (compound or complex) sentences. Then self-edit using the checklist.

Name Brent Build it, Read it, Write it! (A)

 Snowflakes fall from the sky, and they cover the ground with a blanket of snow.

 A warm cup of tea is the perfect drink on a cold day, or you may prefer hot cocoa.

 I want to build a snowman, but my friend wants to create a snow fort.

 I checked my writing for:

- capital letters → Ihe
- good spelling
- punctuation marks → (., ! ?)

©2014 Mrs. Winter's Bliss

OPTION 2: Students build & record a (compound or complex) sentence. Then they use the sentence as the beginning of a short story. Finally, students self-edit using the checklist.

Name Katherine

Build & Write a Story!

①

Directions: Build the sentence and write it below correctly making sure to use proper punctuation. Then use this sentence as the start of a short story with descriptive details.

Snowflakes fall from the sky, and they cover the ground with a blanket of snow. My friends and I get so excited when we look out the window and see snow! We quickly get on warm snow pants, boots, gloves, and our coats. Then we rush

I checked my writing for:

- capital letters → The
- good spelling
- punctuation marks → (.,!?)
- excellent story details

